Automated Community Connection to Economic Self Sufficiency (ACCESS). Provides eligible low income families with state economic assistance, such as food assistance (SNAP), temporary cash assistance (TANF), and Medicaid. Families who are eligible should not experience any disruption in their services during this time. DCF has waived work requirements for individuals participating in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program and no Medicaid recipient will lose Medicaid eligibility during the state of emergency. DCF has also temporarily increased SNAP recipients’ benefit amount to the maximum monthly allotment based on household size to assist families during this time. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has approved a waiver request allowing Florida food stamp recipients to purchase their groceries online. USDA officials will still determine the parameters of that online program. SNAP households can purchase food online and pay using their EBT card at pickup, among other options. This reduces shopping risk from COVID-19.

Eligibility criteria: Families interested in applying can reach an agent at 850-300-4323, (TTY) 1-800-955-8771 or visit website. DCF is also extending the timeframe for individuals applying for Medicaid, beginning with applications received in February 2020, to submit any necessary paperwork to 120 days from the date the application was received. If the Medicaid application is approved, the individual’s Medicaid eligibility effective date will still be the first day of the month that the initial application was received.

Child Support Program. The Florida Department of Revenue (DOR) provides online resources to assist families in handling their child support case without visiting a local Child Support Office. For updates and case information, customers can call (850) 488-5437 (for all counties, except Miami Dade County). Miami Dade County residents should call 305-530-2600.

Community Action Survey – Stronger Than C-19. The StrongerThanC-19 community action survey is designed to gather information to help the Department of Health track and slow the spread of COVID-19 in Florida; it is not a symptom checker designed to dispense medical advice. The StrongerThanC-19 community action survey is free to use and can be accessed by visiting: www.StrongerThanC19.com.

Economic Impact Payments. As part of the federal CARES Act, economic impact payments have begun and will be distributed automatically, with no action required for most people. However, some taxpayers who typically do not file returns will need to submit a simple tax return to receive the economic impact payment.

Eligibility Criteria: Tax filers with adjusted gross income up to $75,000 for individuals and up to $150,000 for married couples filing joint returns will receive the full payment. For filers with income above those amounts, the payment amount is reduced by $5 for each $100 above the $75,000/$150,000 thresholds. Single filers with income exceeding $99,000 and $198,000 for joint filers with no children are not eligible. Eligible taxpayers who filed tax returns for either 2019 or 2018 will automatically receive an economic impact payment of up to $1,200 for individuals or $2,400 for married couples. Parents also receive $500 for each qualifying child. For additional information, please visit the IRS website by clicking here.

Mortgages. The Governor issued Executive Order 20-94, providing targeted, temporary relief from certain mortgage foreclosures and evictions for 45 days, without relieving an individual’s obligation to make mortgage payments and rent payments. If your ability to pay your mortgage is impacted, contact your mortgage servicer (the company where you send your monthly payments) as soon as possible to let them know about your current circumstances, as they may have options to assist you during this time. The telephone number and mailing address of your mortgage servicer should be listed on your monthly mortgage statement. The recently passed Federal CARES Act and Family First Coronavirus Response Act included expanded insurance provisions related to COVID-19 testing and obtaining medical services through telemedicine. BUSINESS SUPPORT

Agricultural Business Support. The federal CARES Act has allotted resources for the USDA to address the economic effects of a COVID-19 downturn on sectors of agriculture ranging from livestock producers dealing with volatile markets to farmers who are losing business as states and localities close farmers markets and restaurants. Details on how to apply for those specific resources have not been released at this time, but support is available under traditional programs provided by the USDA. Please visit https://www.usda.gov/ and https://www.farmers.gov/coronavirus for information and disaster resources they have available as a result of COVID-19.

Business Damage Assessment Survey. The Business Damage Assessment Survey is activated to assess the impact of COVID-19 on Florida’s local business operations. The Business Damage Assessment Survey can be taken online at https://floridadisaster.biz/BusinessDamageAssessments.

Small businesses with fewer than 50 employees may qualify for exemption from the requirement to provide leave due to school closings or child care unavailability if the leave requirements would jeopardize the viability of the business as a going concern. For more information, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) website. Small and midsize employers can begin taking advantage of two new refundable payroll tax credits, designed to immediately and fully reimburse them, dollar-for-dollar, for the cost of providing Coronavirus-related leave to their employees. This relief to employees and small and midsize businesses is also provided under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act. For more information on relief, please click here.

businesses described in the Small Business Act, as well as individuals who are self-employed or are independent contractors, are eligible if they also meet program size standards.

Starting April 3, 2020, small businesses and sole proprietorships can apply for and receive loans to cover their payroll and other certain expenses through existing SBA lenders. Starting April 10, 2020, independent contractors and self-employed individuals can apply for and receive loans to cover their payroll and other certain expenses through existing SBA lenders. The Paycheck Protection Program will be available through June 30, 2020. In addition, the Governor, via executive order, has suspended the collection of documentary stamp taxes for these loans.

Eligibility Criteria: Eligible recipients may qualify for a loan up to $10 million determined by 8 weeks of prior average payroll plus an additional 25% of that amount. Loan payments will be deferred for six months. If you maintain your workforce, SBA will forgive the portion of the loan proceeds that are used to cover the first 8 weeks of payroll and certain other expense following loan origination. Click here to learn more. The application and further information is also available at this link.

SBA Debt Relief Program (Federal). The CARES Act also provided for debt relief for small businesses with certain SBA loans. The principal, interest, and fees of new loans issued prior to September 27, 2020, will be paid as will the principal, interest, and fees of current loans for a period of 6 months. This assistance is automatic. Click here to learn more. Borrowers can also reach out to their lenders or contact a small business development center for more information. A link to find the local small business development center is located in this section for your convenience.

Eligible loans: An SBA 7(a) loan is a loan of up to $5 million for borrowers who lack credit elsewhere and need access to versatile financing, providing short-term or long-term working capital and to purchase an existing business, refinance current business debt, or purchase furniture, fixtures, and supplies. A 504 loan is a loan up to $5.5 million for small businesses that provides long-term, fixed-rate financing used to acquire fixed assets for expansion or modernization. A microloan loan is a loan up to $50,000 to help small businesses and certain not-for-profit childcare centers to start up and expand. EIDL, Express Bridge Loans, and Paycheck Protection Loans are not eligible, but these programs already provide for deferred payments or loan forgiveness.

Short-Time Compensation Plans. Employers can work with DEO to enter into short-time compensation plans. Under such plans, employers reduce hours for a group of employees (no more than 40% reduction) instead of resorting to temporary layoffs. Partial benefits are paid to employees. Note: Employers with higher experience with the system may not chose this option because the employer’s potential maximum rate increases to 6.4% when participating in this program.

The federal government’s stimulus plan may provide for federal payment of benefits paid under the short-time compensation program. If the U.S. Department of Labor adopts guidelines for this program, it may help to keep employer tax rates down, especially for tax year 2021. Click here for more information.

Small Business Emergency Bridge Loans (State). The Florida Small Business Emergency Bridge Loan Program is now closed for additional applications; click here for more information. It is a program for small business owners located in all Florida counties statewide that experienced economic damage as a result of COVID-19. All qualified applicants must have been established prior to March 9, 2020, and suffered economic injury as a result of the designated disaster. Qualified small business applicants must be a business with 2 to 100 employees. Applicants may also contact the SBDC or DEO to find other open programs for assistance.

Small Business Administration Economic Injury Disaster Loan or Loan Advance (Federal). The loan advance of up to $10,000 will provide economic relief to businesses that are currently experiencing a temporary loss of revenue. Funds will be made available.

Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (Federal). Under the CARES Act, individuals who are self-employed, independent contractors, and nonprofit employees, those that are otherwise ineligible for state Reemployment Assistance benefits and those that have exhausted state and federal benefits may be eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance. As federal guidance is still under development, individuals are encouraged to apply for benefits from DEO – to see if the individual is eligible for a regular claim and to be positioned to receive PUA benefits, if eligible. DEO suggests that after the individual submits a claim, he or she should continue to check the CONNECT account for updates on what additional information is needed. DEO is implementing federal guidance for the program that was released on April 5 and taking the necessary steps to facilitate state participation in the program. Click here for more information.

Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (Federal). The CARES Act included provisions to provide individuals receiving Reemployment Assistance or receiving Pandemic Unemployment Assistance with payments of $600 for weeks of unemployment through July 31, 2020. This is an “emergency increase” that is in addition to other benefit payments. An individual who files a new benefits claim or has an existing RA claim has to take no additional action to receive the additional benefits. Payments will be issued as they become available.

Personal Care Attendant Program. Agency for Health Care Administration launched a program to allow personal care attendants to temporarily perform additional duties. This program will provide nursing homes with an avenue to hire Floridians currently out of work to fill staffing shortages. Job listings will be available on the Florida Health Care Association’s job board or directly from nursing homes across the state.

Reemployment Assistance Program (State). If your employment has been negatively impacted as a result of the mitigation efforts in Florida to stop the spread of COVID-19, you may be eligible to receive Reemployment Assistance benefits, formerly known as unemployment compensation. During this time, DEO waived job search requirements for claimants (i.e., individuals who file for Reemployment Assistance) and waived the requirement for Floridians to wait a week to receive Reemployment Assistance benefits through May 8, 2020. For more information, review the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO) Reemployment Assistance FAQs.

Reemployment Assistance benefits can be filed by accessing CONNECT online via http://www.floridajobs.org/, a mobile-friendly website at www.FloridaJobs.org/RAApplication, or by calling 1-800-681-8102.
