

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting The Center for Family Services of Palm Beach County, Inc.'s (CFS) website. Nothing is more important to CFS than protecting the private information of visitors to our site. We do not collect personally identifiable information from individuals unless they provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. The information we collect about you during your visit depends on what you do while you are on the site.

Information Automatically Collected and Stored

When you visit any website, certain personal information about you can be collected automatically. For every visitor, we automatically collect and temporarily store the following information about your computer and your visit:

- Your computer's Internet Protocol (IP) address.
- The domain from which you access the Internet
- The Internet address of the website, if any, from which you came to our site (for example, if you come to CFS' website by clicking on a link on Google's search results).
- The date and time you arrived at our site and how long you spent on it.
- The name and version of your computer's operating system and browser.
- Which pages you visited.

If you just browse through our site, read pages, or download information, that is the only information we collect. We use this information to measure the number of visitors to the different sections of our site and to help us make our site more useful to visitors.

Personal Information You Choose to Provide

We collect and store no other information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide it. Examples are if you send us an e-mail or make an online donation through PayPal.

Disclaimer

CFS does not disclose, give, sell or transfer any personal information about our visitors. We will only use personally identifying information to respond to you or to help us assist you with your request. In those cases, authorized employees may see the personal information you provide in order to look into the matter you inquired about. We may enter the information you send into an electronic database. Again, this information is only shared with authorized employees to provide you with solutions to the matter you inquired about.

Also, e-mail is not necessarily secure against interception. If you are concerned that your communication is very sensitive or confidential, you can send it by postal mail instead.

Although we work very hard to provide the user with the most current and accurate information, we cannot and do not warrant that everything you see on this site is up-to-date, error free or complete.
