

TEEN DATING VIOLENCE AWARENESS CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES

ORANGE YARN

Give people orange yarn to wrap around their wrists and help spread the message about healthy relationships! You don't have to give a speech every time that you give someone yarn, but often, people will ask you why you are doing it. Then someone later in the day will see that person and ask why they are wearing it. Eventually, it can reach the whole campus and raise awareness on a bigger scale!

CHALKING

Get permission to chalk up (write a message with chalk on the ground) a regularly frequented walkway on your campus. Your message could be something as simple as: "February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month." You could also rally the artists in your school to make a beautiful chalk mural.

THESE HANDS DON'T HURT MURAL

Set up a large mural where passing students can sign a pledge committing to nonviolence in their relationships. Let them sign the pledge by printing their hand with paint on the mural or tracing their hand in chalk on the sidewalk. Have a table nearby with handouts the students can take with them after they sign the pledge.

WALL OF LOVE

Print copies of the "Love is..." speech bubble template included from this toolkit. Use different colors of paper for visual interest. Cut out the speech bubbles and ask students to write down what love means to them. Tape the bubbles on a board or in a designated space in a hallway. Students can get creative with how their speech bubbles are displayed!
