BROADWAY UNDER THE Stars

Richard Todd Adams has spent much of the last decade performing across the country in some of the most sought-after roles in musical theatre. He is one of a handful of American actors to have portrayed the Phantom, Jean Valjean, and Javert.

A graduate of The Juilliard School, he began his career starring as Raoul with both the Los Angeles and national touring companies of THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA.

Upon returning to New York, he appeared Off-Broadway in BERLIN TO BROADWAY WITH KURT WEILL, Michael John LaChiusa's LITTLE FISH at Second Stage, and David Friedman's LISTEN TO MY HEART at Studio 54.

He made his Broadway debut in 2005 in Andrew Lloyd Webber's THE WOMAN IN WHITE, and shortly thereafter, appeared on Broadway again in Boublil and Schoenberg's THE PIRATE QUEEN.

Richard won the 2008 Joseph Jefferson Award for his portrayal of Javert in the Chicago production of LES MISERABLES at the Marriott Lincolnshire Theatre. He then returned to the national tour of THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, this time to play the Phantom.

For the last three years, he toured the country, appearing as both Jean Valjean and Javert in the 25th anniversary national tour of LES MISERABLES.

Regionally, he has starred in THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL, JEKYLL AND HYDE, 1776, SHOW BOAT, RAGTIME, MAN OF LA MANCHA, and 2 PIANOS, 4 HANDS. He resides in South Orange, NJ with his wife, Maria Eberline, and their 5-year-old son, Nathaniel.
