

STATEMENT:

The Greater Boca Raton Beach and Park District aims to provide full accessibility to our programs, services, and activities unless doing so changes the fundamental nature of the program, service or activity or it creates an undue administrative or financial burden. If you are not able to access any of the content of this website, please contact Briann Harms at bharms@mybocaparks.org or call 561-347-3941 so that we can provide a solution or provide the information in an accessible format. If you use assistive technology (such as a screen reader, etc.) and have difficulty accessing any information, please identify the information or material to which you seek access, the website address of the material with which you request access or assistance, the problem you experienced, and your contact information so that the District may provide you with the necessary assistance.
