

Workplace Giving to Support the Leukemia Research Foundation

Federal Employees and the Combined Federal Campaign

The Leukemia Research Foundation participates annually in the largest workplace giving campaign in the world - the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) for employees of the federal government, the postal service, and the uniform services. Contact your Human Resources Department for more information, and don't forget to designate Leukemia Research Foundation (#11725) on your payroll deduction form!

The Leukemia Research Foundation is proud to be a member of Medical Research Charities. All member charities are thoroughly vetted for program effectiveness, organizational sustainability, and federal compliance. Each charity undergoes a comprehensive annual review of their finances, programs, and level of research support.

State Employees and Neighbor To Nation

The Leukemia Research Foundation is part of Neighbor To Nation (NTN), an organization that specializes in Workplace Giving Campaigns in State, Local, and Municipal governments, as well as corporate campaigns. The participating charities represent a collection of the finest, most respected and fiscally accountable organizations in the country. Many of these organizations have been helping the community for over 100 years. The Leukemia Research Foundation is proud to be part of NTN.
