

Palm Beach Police Foundation Academic Scholarship

Time to Apply!

The Application Process for the Palm Beach Police Foundation Academic Scholarship is beginning for the 2014/2015 academic year and now is the time to apply. This scholarship program is available to the dependent children of the employees of The Palm Beach Police Department providing the following criteria are met.

1. Dependent Children under the age of 25 years who are naturally related to, legally dependent upon or adopted by an active uniformed or civilian employee of the Town of Palm Beach Police Department or an employee of The Town of Palm Beach Police Department retired by town rules with a limit of 5 years (10 years if employed on December 31, 2009) following regular retirement and separation of employment. Employees hired after April 18, 2008, must have completed 5 years of continuous service with the Town of Palm Beach Police Department.
2. Have a dependent child under age 25 currently enrolled in college with a minimum GPA of 2.0.

or

Have a dependent child who is a High School Senior preparing to enroll for their freshman year of college or approved secondary education.

All active employees must be employed with the Town of Palm Beach for 3 years prior to application and be full-time status.

All applications must meet the above listed criteria and be received by the committee on time.

Preliminary application due March 1st, 2014

Final application due May 1st, 2014

Applications should be submitted to Jeff Trylch for documentation and they will be forwarded to the Foundation. All questions should be directed to Jeff Trylch. It is anticipated that funds will be disbursed in summer 2014.

Please note there is an Initial Application for first time applicants and a Renewal Application for students who have previously received this scholarship.