Part II, Section C, line 17a, Facts and Circumstances Test:

Palm Healthcare Foundation's public support for fiscal year ended June 30, 2018 was 23.49%. The following facts and circumstances support the public charity status of the Foundation for four main reasons: 1) the Foundation's original corpus was funded substantially from broad public sources, and the investment income that impacts the public support percentage (Schedule A, Section C, Line 14) substantially comes from that original public support; 2) the Foundation has always operated a comprehensive fund development program which solicits a broad range of public donors in a number of ways, which includes major giving, annual giving, planned giving, grant-writing, special events and on-line giving; 3) the Foundation's 18-member board of trustees and its seven (7) committees are made up of community members from a variety of geographic locations, industries, ethnic and religious backgrounds and socio-economic levels, representing Palm Beach County as a whole; and 4) the Foundation continues to receive legacy planned giving donations from the public that may be very material, but are unpredictable.

1) Palm Healthcare Foundation, a hospital conversion foundation, was created in July 2001 as the successor to the Good Samaritan Medical Center Foundation and St. Mary's Hospital Foundation when the two not-for-profit hospitals were sold to a for-profit entity. The funds in the hospital foundations, donated from a wide-range of public sources including individual donors, other foundations and corporations, formed the original corpus of Palm Healthcare Foundation. At the end of Palm Healthcare Foundation's first fiscal year, the Foundation held $64 million in an investment portfolio for the purposes of supporting the healthcare needs of Palm Beach County residents. From the beginning, the Foundation solicited the public at large for donations to supplement the corpus. Public donations and investment return has allowed Palm Healthcare Foundation to grant more than $78 million.

2) Since its inception, Palm Healthcare Foundation has maintained a continuous program for solicitation of funds from the general public, community and local sponsors. The Foundation employs a senior-level fund development executive who manages a comprehensive solicitation program, including:

- a. Three annual direct mail pieces are sent to thousands of community members.
- b. An annual giving program, which was supported by 100% of the Foundation's trustees this fiscal year.
- c. A yearly nursing appreciation reception with sponsorship opportunities.
- d. Corporate support to advance brain health, physical fitness, nutrition, and nursing advancement.
- e. Memorial and tribute giving opportunities.
- f. Multiple ways to give on-line at www.palmhealthfoundation.org.
- g. Fundraising ads are placed in the local media outlets including newspaper, radio and event program books.
- h. Annual reports with donors' stories and ways to give.
- i. Fund development training for trustees, as well as focus groups, cultivation activities and community events to which trustees bring potential donors.
- j. Submit several grant applications to local, state and national granting making organizations.

3) Palm Healthcare Foundation's board of trustees consists of a strong, diverse governing body which represents the broad healthcare interests of the residents of Palm Beach County. Trustees represent the following sectors of the community:

- a. Health Department (government).

provided free of charge to three unrelated not-for-profit organizations as part of the organization's mission to promote healthcare. The three not-for-profit organizations provide services directly for the benefit of the general public. The fair market value of the in-kind rent for the current fiscal year was over $261,000.

4) The Foundation continues to receive planned giving bequests which originated from its history of being the successor of a prior not-for-profit hospital foundation. The Foundation has no way of predicting the amount of funds to be received by future donees or bequests.

In light of the history of Palm Healthcare Foundation's public support origins and the ongoing commitment to soliciting public support to improve the health and well-being of residents of Palm Beach County, Palm Healthcare Foundation meets the facts and circumstances of the public support test.
