My Torah Speech

I. First Sentence of Speech

The Parsha for this Shabbat is entitled _____ and is from the Book of _____, Chapter _____, Verse _____, through Chapter _____, Verse _____. The part that I will chant in Hebrew today is taken from Chapter _____, beginning with Verse _____.

II. Summary

Read the English of your Torah portion carefully. What is it about? What events happen? What ideas or laws do we learn about? Summarize and retell the portion in your own words. It should be about two to three paragraphs.

III. The Lessons

- A) What lessons can we learn from your Torah portion? How did you see this lesson in the portion?
- B) How do these lessons apply to our lives and our world today?

IV. Your Life

How do these lessons affect you and your life? Please give two or three personal examples.

V. Last Sentence of Speech

If you would like to follow along, the Torah portion can be found on page _____ of the Torah Commentary.
